by and my role as President is already more than half way over. I hope you have had a great year so far and have enjoyed our monthly meetings as much as I have. It's time for the kids to get back to school and get everyone in a routine again. Sometimes, this can be a challenge and cause anxiety. Sometimes, your daughter turns 16, gets her driver's license, a car and a job all in the course of a summer! This can cause a mother anxiety, as well. I have found that deep cleansing breaths help, as well as the "Life 360" app. I use this to track my kids; they like to call it stalking. I like to call it my job to do so (insert teenage eye roll). It helps with the anxiety. For those of you with kids, it can be tough with their anxiety for the new school year. They can have new schools, new teachers, new rules, etc. I wish you all the best of luck with all the excitement and challenges a new school year can provide.

This anxiety can be felt when guests or new members attend ANEW. It's sometimes tough to walk in a room with our members and to not feel anxious. I will tell you, I know that feeling all too well. I attended ANEW meetings for probably a year without ever really getting to know anyone. I sat with my sponsor every time and if she didn't attend, neither did I. I have a completely different perspective now. I chose to join a committee, the Programs Committee. I met and got to know so many members during this time. It helped me build my confidence and meetings became much more fun...and I attended every one of them, whether my sponsor did or not. I have developed some great friendships within ANEW. It does take effort on your part. If you are a new member and haven't attended an Orientation, please do so. You can learn so much about ANEW and meet other members in a smaller setting. Also, join a committee, it's very rewarding to be a part of the "behind the scenes" of our organization.

Thank you all for allowing me to be your President and I look forward to seeing you at this month's meeting, Wednesday, August 28th.

As always, please feel free to email me directly at ahargett@workingdistributors.com with any questions or thoughts that you have about ANEW. See you all soon!
