A Note from the President...

Dear ANEW Membership,
I can't believe that half of the year has already passed. It seems like yesterday we were celebrating the start of the New Year, and now we are only a few days away from the beginning of summer. As I approach the mid-point in my term as your 27th President of ANEW, I thought I would take this time to look back at ANEW's highlights for the first six months of 2014.

We started out the year with a bang when Christy Gillenwater, CEO of the Chamber of Commerce of Southwest Indiana, came to speak about new things happening in Evansville business. We followed that up with a very successful "Just Networking" session in February. It was all about networking and H.E.A.R.T: Happy and Enthusiastic About Reaching out To each other. Also in February, we held our 2nd Annual Founder's Day Breakfast event, which celebrates our thirty-third anniversary of ANEW. In March, we hosted our annual Athena Recipient Leadership Panel, where we heard from two very influential women leaders: Lynne Miller Pease 2012 Recipient and Sheila Huff 2013 Recipient, on the importance of leadership and community involvement.

In April, we shifted our focus to women owned business and how they can be helped through the state department. Terrie F. Daniel, Deputy Commissioner of the Indiana Department of Administration for Minority and Women's Business, came to share with us what her department does to support women and minority owned businesses, and how to gain access to those resources. May's speaker, Eddie Dietz, educated us on "What every woman should know about her vehicle?" just in time for vacation travel season. Eddie gave us great tips of things that we might consider doing ourselves, and when you should call a mechanic. I think all of us gained some great knowledge about our cars by attending May's meeting. This month, you won't want to miss John Scott Foster, Executive Director for the Wessleman Wood Nature Preserve, as he will be sharing with us about the importance of connecting with nature, and how valuable our nature preserve is to our community.

Wow, this is such an impressive list of programs and events that our committees put on month after month. ANEW is so fortunate to host so many wonderful speakers, many of which are from our local community. Thank you to all members of our committees that work tirelessly to secure informative and entertaining speakers for our monthly meetings and events.

As always, please feel free to contact me with any questions, concerns or thoughts that you have about ANEW. As our membership grows, so do our needs, and wants, and we want to hear from you. Hope to see you all at our next meeting on June 25th!

Best wishes,
MaNissa Lemon

Five things you didn't know..... about Chelsea Schmidt

1. When I was in Elementary School, I was very quiet and during any free time, was typically snuggled up in the corner of the classroom reading a book or working in the library.
2. When I was in High School, I discovered my passion for marketing/communications and started dating the man who is now my fiancé.
3. At my wedding (next May), I'm most looking forward to our first dance; my fiancé is going to choose the song and surprise me.
4. When I was little I wanted to be a teacher when I grew up.
5. My lottery winnings would go to providing more activities for youth in the Evansville area to keep them busy and out of trouble...and probably paying off my student loans!

Table Space Available to Promote your Business

At each ANEW meeting there are three tables available to any member for promotion of special events. The tables are set up in the lobby area of our meeting facility except for the October Annual meeting and the December Holiday meeting.

Examples of appropriate use are: members wishing to promote a not for profit event for which they are volunteering and a seminar, workshop or event hosted by a member's place of business. Table space is not to be used by retailers selling items in the normal course of business.

Table space is available on a first come, first serve basis. You are responsible for removing the material from the tables after the meeting. If you are interested in securing table space please contact Katie Worman, Second VP - Programs at knw@bowersharrison.com
