President's Letter

Hello!

I have renewed excitement about ANEW as we head into the November meeting. The ANEW Board for 2022 was approved last month and I'm excited about the new energy and ideas that will be coming to our networking group.

I will say goodbye to the ANEW Board at the end of the year after six years of service. It has been the best experience, to work behind-the-scenes to bring strong programming, maintain meetings through a pandemic and be inspired to serve alongside so many inspiring women.

If you are trying to figure out how to meet others in ANEW or if you are still a little lost when you walk into the pre-meeting networking, I encourage you to get involved in a committee and consider serving on the board after a year on a committee. Serving on committees and on the board were the best ways for me to get to know my fellow ANEW members.

I also want to congratulate our Woman of Action, Jan Davies. It was wonderful to recognize the Jan as the recipient of the honor she originally helped develop for our group. I am so glad she continues to be active in ANEW and that she continues to inspire those who know her.

We will welcome the mayor to ANEW this month. I look forward to seeing what new projects are on the horizon for our city. This is always one of our most highly attended meetings, so get your reservations in quickly!

See you soon,
Angie Richards Cheek

Membership Profile

5 Things you don't know about Kasey Gray

Describe your career path to reach your current position:

Helping people has always come natural and passion of mine. I started school in nursing and every job I had lead me to helping others and educating them on how their insurance works or selecting best policy for them.

What part of your job is most satisfying? Helping families and getting out in the community and making a difference.

When I was little I wanted to be a mom when I grew up.

What is one think you would change if you could?

No child going hungry.

What does ANEW mean to you?

Connecting and building relationships with other women in business.

If you have had a name change, job change, email change, or have changed your home address this year, be sure to change your information in the website directory. Also, send an email to info@evansvilleanew.org to let them know so changes can be kept in the Membership files as well. Thank you!
