Mentoring Program with ANEW

The ANEW Mentoring Program exists to create a more diverse organization and broaden our reach to more professional women.

You can learn more on our website, and feel free to invite guests each month who would benefit from our wonderful network of professionals.

reach your current position.

In 2020, I joined ILOVEKICKBOXING as a member, and I quickly became passionate about the classes. So much so that I decided to take on a 6-week challenge, pushing myself both mentally and physically to reach my weight loss goal. On the final day of the challenge, the owner offered me the opportunity to become an instructor. I was thrilled to have the chance to teach something I loved. A year later, I was asked to manage the studio, where I found great fulfillment in helping others achieve their physical and mental health goals. It's incredibly rewarding to witness people discover the perfect balance of physical activity while reducing stress. I'm proud to share that, in January 2024, I became the owner of ILOVEKICKBOXING.

2. What part of your job is most satisfying?

I'm deeply passionate about being a source of support for both their physical and mental well-being through our workouts at the studio. At ILKB, we've created a tight-knit, empowering community where everyone can thrive, grow, and push themselves to new limits. It's incredibly rewarding to be part of that journey.

3. When I was little I wanted to be a business owner when I grew up. My dreams came true as of January 2024!

4. What is the most relaxing habit?

- I love listening to podcasts! I also enjoy having family and friends over for cookouts and spending time by our pool in the summer.

5. What does ANEW mean to me?

- ANEW has been a place where I've had the privilege of meeting some truly incredible women. The support and sense of
