President's Letter

Turning Adversity into Opportunity: Harnessing Your Strengths

Dear Members,

As we journey through our professional lives, we all encounter challenges and setbacks. This month, I want to focus on a powerful theme: using adversity to our advantage. While facing difficulties can be daunting, it's often through these experiences that we discover our true strength and resilience.

The Power of Adversity

Adversity can take many forms—unexpected obstacles, personal challenges, or professional setbacks. However, each of these experiences carries the potential for growth and transformation. Here are some keys to leverage adversity for positive change:

1. Shift Your Perspective: Instead of viewing challenges as roadblocks, consider them as opportunities for growth. Ask yourself what lessons you can learn from the situation. A positive mindset can transform how you approach obstacles and help you find solutions.
2. Develop Resilience: Facing adversity builds resilience, a crucial skill in both personal and professional realms. Each challenge you overcome strengthens your ability to navigate future difficulties. Embrace the process and recognize that your experiences are shaping you into a stronger leader.
3. Seek Support: Don't hesitate to lean on your network during tough times. Sharing your experiences with trusted colleagues can provide fresh perspectives and support. Our Women's Networking Group is a resource for encouragement, advice, and collaboration.
4. Embrace Change: Adversity often forces us to adapt and evolve. Use these moments to reassess your goals and values. You may discover new paths and opportunities that align more closely with your true aspirations.
5. Inspire Others: Sharing your journey through adversity can inspire and uplift those around you. By being open about your challenges and how you overcame them, you can provide hope and motivation for others facing similar struggles.

Share Your Stories

I encourage each of you to reflect on how you've turned challenges into opportunities in your own life. What lessons have you learned? Your stories can inspire and motivate our community as we support one another on our journeys.

Thank you for being a vital part of ANEW. Together, let's continue to harness the power of adversity and transform it into strength and opportunity.

Warm regards,

Aimee Stachura

Kendall Burkart - Old National Bank,
Marketing Manager

*What is your greatest achievement?

Personal: It would be earning a full-ride scholarship to USI. Without a doubt, this set me up to be financially stable and allowed me to focus on my studies, internships, and securing a post-college job.

*What part of your job is most satisfying?

I absolutely love seeing our brand marketing in public. We currently have strong campaigns in Nashville and Minneapolis that look SO sharp.

When I was little, I wanted to "drive the brown truck" (UPS Driver).

* What is your most relaxing habit? I'm a (new) avid reader. My favorite time of the day is crawling into bed each night to read. If you told college-age me that I'd be reading every night, I would've laughed.

*What does ANEW mean to me?

ANEW grants me the opportunity to meet other successful ladies in my community. Not only do I have the chance to network and learn from established businesswomen, but I've also met some bright, young professionals.

Amy has been a member of ANEW since May 2024.
