We invite you to reflect on the extraordinary women within our ANEW community who truly embody our core values of empowerment and collaboration. Do you know an ANEW member whose remarkable contributions in volunteerism, professional endeavors, or personal achievements set her apart? Perhaps she has gone above and beyond, inspiring others and making a profound impact on our collective journey. This esteemed award is not merely a recognition;

it is a heartfelt celebration of the spirit of support and solidarity that defines our organization. By nominating a deserving member, you are contributing to a culture of appreciation that uplifts and honors the incredible accomplishments of women in Evansville. Let us come together to acknowledge and celebrate those who exemplify excellence in all they do!

Nominate someone today!

President's Letter

Dear Friends,

As we move into the heart of the year, I want to share a few thoughts about what keeps our network strong: participation.

At the center of everything we do, events, programming, growth, are the women who step up to serve on committees. These committees are where ideas take shape, leadership is developed, and connections are deepened. It's also how we prepare future board members. To be considered for the board, you need to serve on a committee for at least a year. That's intentional. It helps us build a board rooted in experience, relationships, and shared purpose.

But here's where we need your help. We can't build a strong board, or a forward-moving organization, without a steady flow of new voices, energy, and ideas. If too few people get involved, we limit our potential. The truth is that our impact depends on more of us participating. Whether you've thought about joining a committee before or this is the first time, I hope you'll consider getting involved. We need a range of talents and perspectives, and there's a place for everyone. Whether you have a lot of time to give or just a little, your involvement matters.

Take a moment this month to raise your hand. Reach out to me or any board member if you're curious or ready to say yes. We'd love to have you join us.

Warmly,

Aimee Stachura

Member Profile

Sondra Poehlin, American Family
Insurance, Agent

* Describe your career path to reach your current position.

I started at American Family Insurance as a kid that knew absolutely nothing about insurance.
After twenty-eight years of learning and helping other agents, I took the leap of faith to open my own agency. It will be my two-year anniversary being an agency owner August 1st.

* What is your greatest achievement?

Personal: Running three half marathons considering I couldn't run a mile when I was in school. Professional: That I am a business owner without a college degree.

When I was little, I wanted to be a professional basketball player. This is quite comical since I have no athletic bone in my body.

* One thing you could go back and change if you could.

I would have changed opening my own agency sooner!

*What does ANEW mean to me?

I am grateful to Katelynne Edge for introducing me to ANEW, as it has quickly become a source of meaningful friendships and connections. Being part of this network offers a unique opportunity to talk with other professional women that I might not have encountered otherwise. We can inspire one another, sharing our experiences and knowledge to help each other.

Sondra has been a member of ANEW since June 2024.
