President's Letter

As December arrives, I find myself reflecting on an incredible year serving as your President. It has been an honor to work alongside such talented, driven, and supportive women. Together, we've celebrated achievements, strengthened connections, and made a meaningful impact in our community.

I hope you'll join us on December 10 for our Holiday Bazaar, where you can shop for last-minute Christmas gifts from local vendors and enjoy the festive spirit with fellow members. Events like this remind me how powerful our network truly is – supporting each other and our community in meaningful ways.

As my term comes to a close, I'm reminded of the leadership challenge I shared with you in November: asking better questions. Craig Groeschel suggests asking, "What one thing, if we did it differently, would change everything?" Over the past year, I've seen how asking the right questions at the right time opens doors to insight, creativity, and collaboration. So, as we look toward the new year, I challenge each of you to think bigger about our network: "What one thing, if we did it differently, would change everything about A Network of Evansville Women?" How can we all be involved in its continued success? Ask boldly, listen deeply, and let your ideas spark the momentum that will carry our network forward.

I am genuinely grateful for the trust you've placed in me and for the energy and ideas you've shared throughout the year. I am excited to see where the next leadership team will take this incredible network, and I look forward to continuing to be an active member of our board.

Wishing you all a joyful holiday season and a happy new year filled with connection, growth, and opportunity.

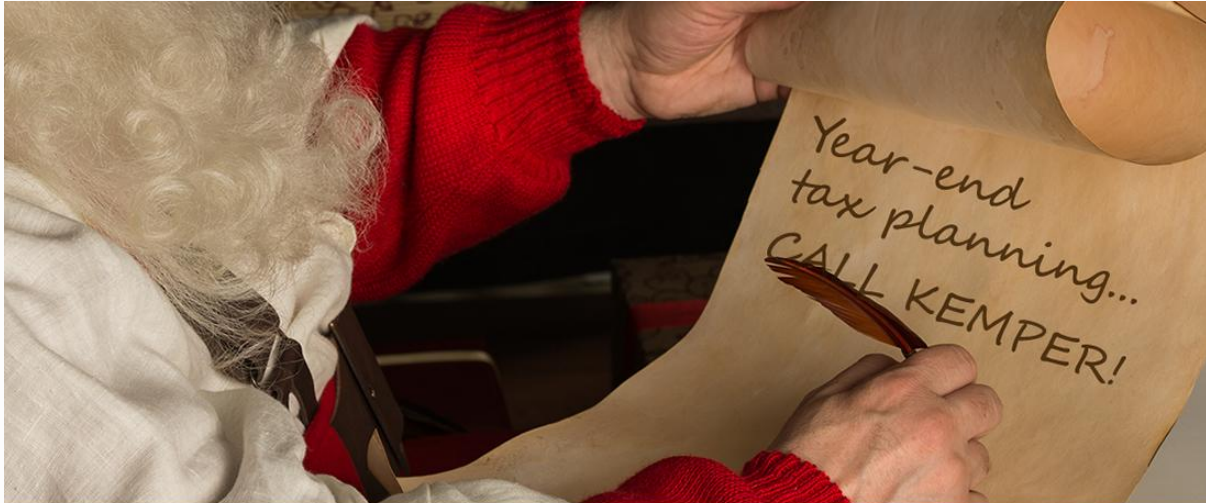

With gratitude,

Aimee Stachura
