Letter from the President

Hello Spring! Hopefully, those freezing cold temperatures are behind us for now! The trees are beginning to bud, the spring flowers are starting to peak through, everything seems to be greening up and renewing. Spring always seems to be, for me, a time of cleaning, organizing and regrouping for the rest of the year. It's kind of like hitting a "reset" button. Those first few sunny, semi-warm days are the best, after a long, cold winter. As soon as the temps hit 60 degrees or higher, I'm busting out the open-toed shoes and ditching the tights! It's a good feeling.

Spring can also be a very busy time of year! Softball and soccer are big spring sports in my house. My daughter and son keep me busy with games, practices and the extra lessons. If you are like me, you start making a list of all the indoor and outdoor projects you want to get done. Sometimes, as women, we get caught up in being a mom, a wife, a Pinterest queen, or an over-extended friend, and we forget to take time for ourselves. Self-care is important. We cannot be all things to all people. I have a hard time remembering this myself. Be sure to make time for YOU. Schedule time for your workout, if that's what you like. Make time for a massage or quick pedicure, if you enjoy them...or heck, 5-10 minutes of meditation can make a difference. Take care of you.

This month's speaker is Erin Ramsey. She's going to speak about how to "build healthy, bold, courageous and authentic friendships while focusing

5 Things you Didn't Know about Rachel Dierlam

1. When she was in elementary school, she was painfully shy. She still considers herself an extroverted introvert.
2. When she was in college, she rode for the Indiana Equestrian Team. She worked multiple jobs while at IU to have money to bring her horse to college with her. Her love of horses and riding has been a lifelong thing.
3. Her most embarrassing moment was at her current job after an all day outing, she hitched a ride home from a co-worker's wife. (This was before Uber and Lyft, she says.) She directed her South across the bridge to Henderson. She lives on the West Side of Evansville!
4. She would love to vacation in an old Irish castle. She would like to ride a big on yourself and your greatest contributions'. I hope you enjoy it!

As always, please feel free to email me directly at ahargett@workingdistributors.com with any questions or thoughts that you have about ANEW. Hope to see you all at our next meeting on April 24, 2019.

Sincerely,

Angie Hargett
