January Membership Meeting

Kristi Byrns
"Rest for Success"

January 25, 2023
at the Evansville Country Club

From the trailer park to the executive office, Kristie Byrns has overcome her life's challenges and was a first generation college student. She has a BA in Sociology and an MS in Public Service Administration as well as certificates in Trauma Informed Care and Somatic Experiencing. She is a leader in higher education administration, a certified life coach, and a former non-profit executive. She savors a life of continuous learning, development, travel, and self-care. Her mission is to help other women embrace their life's purpose and realize what success means to them all while enjoying rest and relaxation. This presentation will help us understand why we long for rest but may be trapped in the cycle of busyness and hustle. As women we load up on shame, especially if we think we aren't "doing it right". Join us as we learn why that is and how we can break out of the habit of busy to live a life of rest while finding the success we crave.

Advertise with ANEW in 2023!

Did you know that consumer research consistently shows that women make more buying decisions than men? Women influence at least 80% of all household spending. Today your company's success may ultimately come down to how effectively you win business from women and inspire loyalty to your brand from your female customers.

Advertising with ANEW is the perfect way to invest in a crucial target market for your business. Monthly advertising options include, Featured Advertiser, Monthly Advertiser, Special Events Underwriter (October and December), and Door Prize opportunities. PROGRAMS

ANEW's 2nd Vice President chairs the Programs Committee. Committee members are responsible for finding speakers for the monthly luncheons, organizing the luncheons (choosing food, setup, reservations, etc). The Programs committee serves as greeters at the meetings, assists with registration each meeting, and helps to Hello and Happy New Year!

I hope everyone got a chance to unwind a bit during the holidays. As much as I love Christmas and all that comes with it, I am happy when the decorations are put away and I have a fresh new calendar that is begging to be filled with meetings, appointments, and events.

I have been a member of ANEW for many years and served in many capacities. I was reticent when asked to take on the Presidency as Claire is a tough act to follow! I promise to do my best for the group and invite you to join a committee, provide comments and suggestions, and get involved to a greater degree than ever before. Committees are forming now and they are another great opportunity to network and get to know members better.

You can help ANEW grow by inviting friends or co-workers to come as guests. It's amazing how many people still don't know about our group! Please be sure to let Lori know about your guests when you make your reservation! Guest payments are due when they check in for the meeting so please pass that along to avoid any awkward encounters.

Now that I've nearly completed my first official duty as President (writing this letter!) I want to say thank you in advance for what I know will be another great year in ANEW.

Best regards,
Rita Joest
