Wednesday, August 28

Welcome to, what seems to be, the humidity capital of the world! Remember when we wished it was warmer? Summer is in full swing and I hope you are getting to enjoy it, whether it is on a vacation or a staycation.

Last month, Linda Wulf spoke about our Woman of Action award. This award is given out at ANEW's Annual Meeting in October. It is given to an ANEW member who exemplifies remarkable talent, skill, and community service. If you know of another ANEW member who gives it her all, is successful in her career, and/or gives selflessly to community organizations, consider nominating her for this award. There are many deserving women in our organization! Please take the time to nominate someone so we can recognize her accomplishments and efforts. The nomination form is available on the website. If you have any questions, please reach out to Linda Wulf or me.

Just in time for summer, this month's program is entitled, Self-Care: Why Vacations are Essential. Jamie Levy is an amazing speaker that will be letting us in on all the reasons why this time away is important. Don't miss it, Wednesday, July 24th.

As always, please feel free to email me directly at ahargett@workingdistributors.com with any questions or thoughts that you have about ANEW. See you all soon!

Membership Profile

5 Things You Didn't Know About Natalie Bunnell

1. When she was in Elementary School, she was a rule follower and a protector of others. She took pride in doing the right thing!
2. When she was in high school, athletics was her world. She played for great coaches and was fortunate to be on successful teams full of talented student athletes, while learning a number of life lessons along the way. She currently holds the all-time assist record in basketball and received the Bub Lindsey 110% Award which is given to a senior athlete who strives to give their best on and off the court/field in all they do. She loves that she has passed along her competitiveness and drive to her children!
3. When she was little she wanted to take over her father's dental lab (Lehi Prosthetics) when she grew up. She wanted to work beside him and continue the business he built on his own!
4. If she won the lottery, she would donate her lottery winnings by offering grants to local teachers. Teachers have brilliant ideas to help motivate and engage their students, but usually use their own earnings to fund those ideas. She would love to remove a financial burden from their plate and let them soar and inspire!
5. What does ANEW mean to her?
When she was first introduced to ANEW, she loved the concept of business women networking and supporting one another. Each month she is impressed by the success and accomplishments of the women in Evansville. She is proud to be an ANEW member!

Natalie has been an ANEW member for 5 months. She is the HSA Relationship Manager at Old National Bank. Thank you Natalie, for sharing with us!

Woman of Action Award

I would like to say "thank you" to ANEW for bestowing me with the 2018 Woman of Action award. After 25 years in business, I've seen a lot of changes in the way women are perceived in the business world. I truly feel that ANEW deserves credit for fostering a positive environment for women to share experiences and business connections. I am grateful for the many friendships and business partners developed from my membership in ANEW and wish each of you great success in your endeavors.

With gratitude,
Lisa Slade
