July Membership Meeting

Lincoln: Divided We Stand

Joshua Claybourn is a local attorney, historian, and author with an emphasis on Abraham Lincoln's youth in Indiana. This year he was featured in a six-part CNN documentary titled, "Lincoln: Divided We Stand", which will be summarized for us at the July meeting.

Claybourn is editor of Abraham Lincoln's Wilderness Years (forthcoming in 2021) and co-editor with Bill Bartelt of Abe's Youth: Shaping the Future President (2019). He frequently serves as host of Lincoln Log, a podcast featuring conversations with leading historians and other officials about their stories, research, and wisdom. Claybourn also serves on the board of directors of both the Abraham Lincoln Association and Abraham Lincoln Institute. Claybourn's law practice focuses primarily on intellectual property, state and local government, utility regulation, and commercial transactions. Locally, he serves as a founding board member and secretary of the Evansville Sports Corp.

President's Letter

Happy July!

Monthly Advertiser

The next few months are exciting for our ANEW members.

I hope you signed up for one of the Membership Appreciation events at Thyme in the Kitchen. You will get your choice of one of two upcoming dates for a cooking class, shopping, tasty appetizers and networking with your fellow members. I can't wait and I hope to see you there.

It's also time to think about nominating a Woman of Action. This prestigious annual award goes to one of our members and is nominated by YOU. The WOA is selected based upon her professional achievements, personal accomplishments and volunteer commitments. The nomination forms will be available very soon, but now is the perfect time to start collecting information about your nominee. The winner is announced at the October Annual Meeting.

Speaking of which, the October Annual Meeting is going to be filled with fun and nostalgia. More details will be released soon, but the committee is going to be asking for your participation in a special project- I can't wait to see it come together!

I look forward to seeing each of you later this month on the 28th with our presentation about Abraham Lincoln and his early years in Indiana. You are always welcome to bring a guest and introduce someone new to our amazing group.

See you soon,
Angie Richards Cheek

If you or someone you know in ANEW is celebrating a milestone, professional or personal, be sure to send this information to info@evansvilleanew.org. We would love to share this in our newsletter!

Special Request for Members:

The Special Events committee is asking for your contribution to the October meeting.

Since ANEW is celebrating 40 years from the first meeting, we ask that you send us a photo of yourself taken in the 80's. It can be full length or a headshot. Please email it to Alohana Jackson at alohana@blisllc.com or hand the original to Rhoda Mattingly at the July meeting. (We will return the photos to you.) Watch for details on how your photos will be displayed

during the October evening meeting.

5 Things you don't know about Courtney Schmitt

Describe your career path to reach your current position.

I went to Boonville High School, graduated with a Bachelor's in Communication Studies and minored in Business Management. I have always had a passion for Marketing and Advertising so right out of college I started working for Comscore where we measured advertising effectiveness campaigns. This job was a bit more technical than I was interested in so after almost 7 years, I started at First Federal Savings Bank as AVP, Marketing Analytics Specialist.

What is your greatest achievement? Personal: Les Mills Instructor training

Professional: Was asked in college to travel to Providence, RI to share my research on communication styles in family relationships.

What make and model was your first car? Hah! 2006 Mitsubishi Eclipse! I totaled it a month after I got it.

Name and explain one skill you learned from a mentor: It's okay to say no!

What is your favorite thing about being an ANEW member? The opportunity to meet so many incredible women.
