5 Things you Didn't
Know about Crystal
Wildeman

1. She is married to Brian, owner of Wilde Horticulture, and she has 2 daughters Adelaide (7) and Marjorie (4).
2. She and her husband married in the Roofless Church in 2007.
3. When she was in college, she went skydiving.
4. When she was in law school, she traveled to South Africa to visit her college roommate while she was serving in the Peace Corps.
5. If she won the lottery, her winnings would go to Youth First to fund a social worker for every single public and private school in the state of Indiana.

What does ANEW mean to you, Crystal?"

warmer days and more hours of sunshine!

A few short weeks ago, the ATHENA Award Luncheon was hosted by the SW IN Chamber of Commerce and sponsored by ANEW. On behalf of our members, I'd like to congratulate our own, Susan Parsons, for being chosen as this year's ATHENA class representative. Susan is Koch Enterprises' Chief Financial Officer and has been highly involved in the community, with numerous accomplishments. Congratulations Susan! ANEW has had many of our members nominated and chosen for this prestigious award over the years.

This month's membership meeting is all about networking. If you haven't attended one of our Just Networking lunches, this is one of the most popular monthly meetings. The meeting format is a little different; we do not have a speaker. Our time is used by getting to know the other members at your table during lunch. The Programs Committee has put together a great format for this Just Networking event. Don't forget to make your reservation BEFORE the deadline. Speaking of reservations, if you have made a reservation and your plans have changed and you cannot attend, please let Lori Otmann know. You can email her over the weekend, even if it's after the deadline to cancel. Reservations that are made and not used result in extra food and money wasted.

Looking forward to seeing everyone March 20th!

Sincerely,

Angie Hargett
ANEW President 2019

Our programming and social engagements allow our members to learn more about each other and build strong relations which extend beyond ANEW. Those relationships have proven to be very valuable to me personally and professionally and for that, I am grateful."
