President's Letter

Hello ANEW!

This month marks a dubious distinction for our group- it has been one year since COVID-19 first impacted how ANEW members would network and meet. I don't think any of us could have predicted just how much coronavirus would affect our personal and professional lives. I remember thinking it would be a short-lived crisis, cancelling events for a few weeks at most and then getting back to life as usual.

Golly. I was so very wrong.

If you recall, the 2020 ANEW March meeting was cancelled after a recommendation from the State Department of Health that gatherings be greatly reduced or eliminated. The next month, our group met for the first time via zoom.

That quick shift from business-as-usual to

Board of Directors 2021

President: Angie Richards Cheek
1st VP Membership: Stephanie Gerhardt

figuring out how to keep business going is one thing I will always remember. This pandemic challenges all of us to find new ways to do the things we need to do, have to do and want to do. School, work, family gatherings, networking, hiring new employees, making new friends and nurturing old friendships- they've all had to change.

But as we look ahead, one year after the pandemic changed nearly everything, there is hope. This month's meeting will be in-person at Evansville Country Club. This has always been the goal of the ANEW Board of Directors- to return to regular meetings as safely as possible! Be sure to make your reservation through the website, it is very important that we have an accurate count so we can have enough lunches and tables with appropriate spacing.

Behind my mask, I will be smiling to be back with each of you again.

Sincerely,
Angie Richards Cheek
ANEW President
