President's Letter

Hello!
I hope everyone has had an opportunity to congratulate Jackie Russell on being named the Woman of Action Award winner at our Annual Meeting last month. Thank you again to our Special Events committee for putting together another great event.

November comes with so many changes – the leaves, the weather, elections, etc.

Our 2023 Woman of Action
Award Winner is Jackie Russell!!
Congratulations!!

But I like November best for the things that don't change much at all, like the tradition of gathering our family and friends for a great Thanksgiving meal, conversation and truly reflecting on the many blessings that we enjoy. The location may change year to year, and we add a new in-law, niece or nephew here and there, and sadly we lose a loved one now and again, but it's that feeling of constancy that warms my heart and soul.

Our November meeting has had the privilege of welcoming Mayor Lloyd Winnecke as our speaker for more years than I can recall, and he will join us for his last address this month as he completes his third term as Evansville's mayor. He always provides updates and insights to the inner workings of our city and this is typically one of our best attended meetings. Get your reservations in and if you can, invite a friend who might be a good candidate for ANEW!

Don't forget to register for the festive December meeting; the Special Events committee has a great line up of vendors for the Holiday Market! (Another tradition that I truly enjoy!)

I look forward to seeing you all soon!
Rita
