President's Letter

As the calendar turns to October, we find ourselves in a month that beautifully bridges the gap between the warmth of summer and the chill of winter. October is a time of transformation—nature shifts into a palette of vibrant oranges, deep reds, and golden yellows, inviting us to embrace the changing seasons.

October is a month packed with various awareness events, each highlighting important causes. Here are some notable ones:

Special Needs Planning Month

October is recognized as Special Needs Planning Month, dedicated to raising awareness about the importance of planning for individuals with special needs and their families. This month emphasizes the critical steps needed to ensure a secure and fulfilling future for those with disabilities, including financial planning, legal considerations, and support systems.

National Downs Syndrome Month

October is designated as National Down Syndrome Awareness Month, a time to celebrate individuals with Down syndrome, promote awareness, and advocate for their rights and inclusion in society. This month focuses on highlighting the abilities and contributions of those with Down syndrome while educating the public about the condition.

Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Breast Cancer Awareness Month, observed each October, is a global initiative aimed at raising awareness about breast cancer, promoting early detection, and supporting research and

Member Profiles

5 Things you didn't know about Jamie Wicks:

1. Name and explain one skill you learned from a mentor. -

Leadership is more than being in charge. Leaders lead by example and bring out the best in others.

2. Describe your career path to reach your current position.

-Before my current position, I was a full time banker and a full time volunteer. I have been president of many boards in our community. When my current position came open, I knew I could put those experiences together to help our parish as Director of Operations.

3. What is your most relaxing habit? Listening to good music!

4. What part of your job is most satisfying? - We have great volunteers at our parish. Seeing treatment efforts. This month is crucial for educating the public about the importance of breast health and encouraging individuals to take proactive steps in their healthcare.

National Substance Abuse Prevention Month

October is National Substance Abuse Prevention Month, a time dedicated to raising awareness about the dangers of substance misuse and promoting effective prevention strategies. This month emphasizes the importance of community involvement, education, and support for those affected by substance use disorders.

Please take a few minutes to register for our upcoming annual dinner, which will be held on October 23, 2024. The doors open at 5p.m. Our Special Events Committee has planned a delightful evening, featuring a delicious dinner, a fun photo booth, fantastic prizes, and a silent auction. Plus, we will honor our Woman of Action recipient during this special occasion. I am looking forward to celebrating with you!

Respectfully yours,

Lindsay Charles
